CORPORATE INTERIORS

ROCKY MOUNTAIN WATER WALL

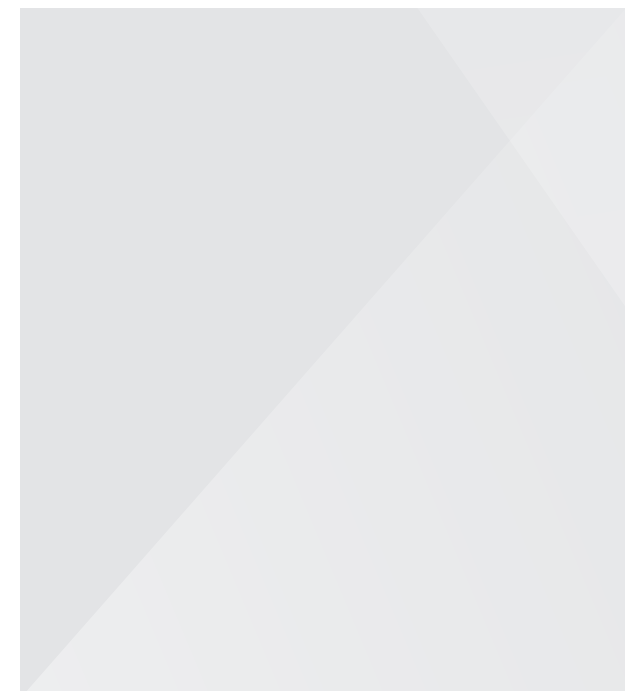

This wall is made of thousands of thin, curved, stainless steel panels that are held together by a series of bolts. The wall is designed to look like a water wall, with the panels curving inwards to create a central opening. The wall is made of stainless steel, which is a durable and corrosion-resistant material. The wall is also made of curved panels, which gives it a unique, organic shape. The wall is made of thousands of thin panels, which makes it very lightweight and easy to install.
